High School Teaching Assistant
(Volunteer Role)

ABOUT THE ROLE
As a High School Teaching Assistant you will guide the success of high school students by supporting them through a year of high school and ultimately preparing them to apply to a competitive four-year college.

YOUR RESPONSIBILITIES WILL INCLUDE:
- Supporting your assigned High School Mentor with classroom instruction
- Co-teaching grade level college readiness workshops for a small class of high school students
- Receiving feedback constructively in order to improve performance
- Assisting your assigned High School Mentor with tracking and reporting student data

WE'RE LOOKING FOR SOMEONE WHO:
- Is passionate about forming relationships with high school students
- Is committed to making their students a priority, and will work to provide appropriate and regular support for them
- Is a current college student
- Can act as a professional role model at all times
- Can commit to the training and Super Saturday dates listed below
- Demonstrates excellence in BTNY’s Core Values, and practices:
  - Efficiency: Produces significant output with minimal wasted effort
  - Prioritization: Balances tasks and makes the right judgment call
  - Critical and Reflective Thinking: Draws insightful conclusions from data and feedback
  - Attention to Detail: Identifies the important details, ensuring they do not slip through the cracks or derails project
  - Effective Communication: Speaks and writes clearly and articulately, adjusts for audience as appropriate
  - Leadership and Ownership: Understands their role as a leader on any project and team, resulting in successful outcomes regardless of their title or role using a “whatever it takes” attitude

BREATHROUGH POINTS IF YOU:
- Are a Breakthrough Alum
- Have taught or worked at a Breakthrough site previously

CALENDAR:
- Teaching Assistant Training: September 12 (10:00AM-6:00PM)
- Super Saturday Dates (9AM-3PM):
  - September 26
  - November 14
  - December 12
  - January 30
  - March 20
  - May 15

BENEFITS:
- Have a transformative impact on the life of a talented student
- Receive ongoing professional development and training opportunities
- Gain valuable classroom teaching experience
- Join a vibrant and diverse volunteer community
- Gain access to meaningful leadership and networking opportunities

TO APPLY our online application at tinyurl.com/BTNYHSTA2020 by Sunday, July 5th at 11:59PM.

If you have any questions, please email seasonal@btny.org

Breakthrough New York is an equal opportunity employer. We encourage applicants who represent the communities we serve.